RELATED MATERIALS

Location of related records:

At the University of Miami Library, Archives and Special Collections Department. Personal and Corporate Paper Collections.

Douglas, Marjory Stoneman Collection. 71-4. Related materials include all those related to the Everglades and the preservation of Florida plant life. This collection is unprocessed.

Houghton, Augustus Seymour Collection. 62-1. Related materials include those dealing with the preservation of the Everglades and the formation of the Everglades National Park. The collection also includes material related to the conservation of native Florida plants and wildlife.

Spicer-Simson, Theodore. 71-1. Related materials include castings of medals presented to Walter T. Swingle.
These are the Frank N. Meyer Medal for Foreign Plant Introduction and the Thomas Barbour Medal from Fairchild Tropical Garden "for vision, unselfish devotion to the preservation of that vanishing Eden, South Florida." Both of these are engraved with Swingle's name. There is another medal awarded by Fairchild Tropical Garden in honor of its founder, Robert H. Montgomery, for work in the field of palms and cycads. In addition there is another casting of the Barbour medal as well as portrait medallions of

Swingle, David Fairchild, and his wife Marian Fairchild.
